INCLUSIVE CHURCH

God loves us all, in all of our diversity and variety.
Every person in creation is infinitely precious to our Maker, Creator and Redeemer.
Every person in creation is equally precious in the sight of God. Every person. Without exception.
Bishop Steven Together in Love and Faith

We have received a copy of Bishop Steven's essay Together in Love and Faith.

If you would like to borrow it, please contact Pam in the office

CHILDREN

We believe that children and young people can follow Jesus and be full members of the church, and that discipleship is possible at any age.
They are integral to our churches, but we need to make sure there are no obstacles preventing them from getting involved. Our monthly WoW services are aimed at the younger members of our community

NOTICES

CHURCH LINEN

The linen used at communion services is laundered by a small group of people who take turns, doing a month at a time.

The work is not onerous but it would be very helpful to have one or two more people who could take part in the rota.

If it is something you are able to do please could you contact John Peniket on 07752282997 or john.peniket@gmail.com

PCC

We receive 4 nominations for charities to support as a church and the PCC agreed these at Wednesday's meeting.

They will be spearheaded by the following people

These are charities for which we will be asking not only for financial support, but also your time, actions, and prayers.

ECO CHURCH

The earth is the Lord's and everything in it, The world and all those who live in it For he has founded it on the seas And established it on the rivers (Ps 24)

Will you strive to safeguard the integrity of creation, and sustain and renew the life of the earth? With the help of God I will.

TREE TRAIL

Have you done the St Peter's Tree Trail yet?

Pick up a leaflet, or scan the QR code here or on the door of Cornerstone and learn about some of the trees in our churchyard

We are collecting used postage stamps for Thames Valley Adventure Playground and used ink cartridges.

We have now received official notice of our Silver Eco Award.

We are the first church in the deanery to reach this level and will now be working towards gold.

A big thank you to everyone who has helped us achieve this.

MESSAGE FROM OUR NEIGHBOUR

It's that time again.. WE WANT YOUR SWEET TUBS! 2020 - we collected 487, last year - an amazing 1,338. This year can we make it 2000? If we do we'll make an igloo like structure with them before they go to be recycled and camp in it for a night for a few extra donations in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support

We can take anything with PP5 plastic markings on it - so also biscuit tubs, washing tablet tubs, sweets tubs etc! We store them, clean them, send them off to be recycled and receive a payment for each tub that goes to MacMillan! Save your tubs from landfill - drop them to us!! THE OLD FIVE BELLS

ECO TIPS

We sadly generate a lot of waste paper in the office, so have decided to make up small notepads which can be used for shopping lists etc. Please help yourself to one from the heater cupboard

Once again we will be encouraging a communal Christmas Card. We will have a board for communal church Christmas cards should you wish to support this eco-friendly alternative.. We will have an area in Cornerstone available from 1st December

COLLECT

Eternal Father, whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord and King: keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit
and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING

Jer.23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them.
So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

SECOND READING

Col. 1:11-20

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

GOSPEL

Luke 23:33-43

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [[ Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.']] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

POST COMMUNION

Stir up, O Lord, the wills of your faithful people; that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by you be plenteously rewarded; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
