CHILDREN

We believe that children and young people can follow Jesus and be full members of the church, and that discipleship is possible at any age. They are integral to our churches, but we need to make sure there are no obstacles preventing them from getting involved. Our monthly WoW services are aimed at the younger members of our community

LITTLE ANGELS

WORDS FROM THE CURATE

At one of our Bible study sessions, the mention of the name Alan Turing is a reminder of how a society can turn on one of it's very best. Believing we know it all but getting it so wrong. We saw in our Gospel reading how the man healed by Jesus, wanting to follow Jesus was stopped by Jesus, and told to stay back in his community to tell others what Jesus had done for him. I have often wondered why Jesus stopped the man from following Him until I heard it explained like this – A community rather than helping its own decided the best way to treat him, was to bound him up in chains and shackles and let him alone in the tombs, without a house and away from his people. And of course, after Jesus healed him, he didn't want anything to do with his people, therefore asked to follow Jesus. Jesus asking him to stay back with his people was to serve two purposes, teach him forgiveness and also give him the opportunity to spread the gospel among his people, because he is the best witness. As a community, public apology has been made in year 2009 on behalf of the British government by Gordon Brown, the Prime Minister at the time, for how Alan Turing was treated but the question is, as a society today which person or group of people are we maltreating based on the erroneous understanding that we know it all?

GOOD NEWS

These animals are not endangered anymore

These animals are no longer endangered, they have made a comeback from the Endangered Species list:

Giant Panda: in 2016 the Giant Panda was officially downgraded from 'endangered' to 'vulnerable'. Around 2,000 Giant Pandas now live wild in protected reserves across China.
 Southern

White Rhino: around 20k southern white rhino now live in protected areas in South Africa, Namibia, Kenya and Zimbabwe. It is the only rhino specie (out of 5) that is not endangered anymore.

Arabian Oryx: in the early 1970's, the 'Arabian Unicorn' was thought extinct, due to poachers. After breeding the few remaining animals in captivity, the oryx was released in the wild in 1982. It is now considered vulnerable.

Humpback Whale: at one point just 1,500 humpback whales were living in Australian waters due to the whaling industry. There are now over 40,000

American Alligator: In 1967, after hunters drove American alligator numbers down to near-extinct levels, the species was granted federal protection. There are now an estimated 5 million American alligators in the US

Bald Eagle: The US' iconic national bird was nearly wiped out after decades of hunting, habitat loss, and the use of DDT, a toxic pesticide that had severely contaminated waterways, then fish, then the animals consuming those fish, including the bald eagle.

By the 1960s, just 487 nesting pairs of bald eagles were alive in the US. The species was included in the Endangered Species Act in the 1970s, and DDT was banned. Populations soared, and bald eagles were federally delisted in 2007.

O God,
the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. AMEN

FIRST READING

Isa 65 1-8

I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me.
I said, 'Here I am, here I am', to a nation that did not call on my name. I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks; who sit inside tombs, and spend the night in secret places;
who eat swine's flesh, with broth of abominable things in their vessels;
who say, 'Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you.'
These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long.
See, it is written before me:
I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps their iniquities and their ancestors' iniquities together, says the Lord; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps full payment for their actions.
Thus says the Lord:
As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it', so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all.

SECOND READING

Gal. 3.23-end

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed.
Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

GOSEL

Luke 8. 26-39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.
As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me'— for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man.
(For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.
Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these.
So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.
When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith,
build us up in hope,
and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord
AMEN
