

Sunday 18th September 14th After Trinity

HER MAJESTY QUEEN ELIZABETH II 1926-2022

Blessed are you, Lord our God, lover of souls: you uphold us in life and sustain us in death: to you be glory and praise for ever! For the darkness of this age is passing away as Christ the bright and morning star brings to his saints the light of life. As you give light to those in darkness, who walk in the shadow of death, so remember in your kingdom your faithful servant, ELIZABETH, that death may be for her the gate to life and to unending fellowship with you; where with your saints you live and reign, one in the perfect union of love, now and for ever. Amen.

There will be a Commemoration Service in church this evening at 6pm

We will be live-streaming Her Majesty's funeral in church tomorrow morning. The church will be open from 10.30am

NOTICES

DING DONG MERRILY!

Do you enjoy the sound of handbells? If so, you would probably enjoy making music yourself on handbells. Why not give it a try?

On Sunday, 2nd October, Cliff will have music and bells available in the north transept (where he normally rings) straight after the 10 a.m. service. Everyone is welcome to come and have a go. And, you do not need to be able to read music!

CHRISTIAN RESOURCE EXHIBITION

CRE National 2022 will take place at Sandown Park, in Esher, Surrey, on 11-13 October 2022. THE CRE is like an Ideal Home Show for churches- where you can buy anything from a pew to a fish sticker! A group of us will be going on Tuesday 11th, so if you would like to join us , please contact Pam or Revd Janet. We could also get you tickets for the other days if you would rather go independently.

WATER HEATER

We have now turned off the water heater in the kitchen for daily use in order to save energy. There is a kettle available for use, however you may use the water heater for larger groups. It will need to be switched on an hour before use and please do not forget to turn it off when you have finished.

FIRST AID

We are compiling a list of First Aiders and Paediatric First Aiders. If you have a current certificate please could you drop a copy, or email, to Pam in the office. Thank you

COLLECT

Almighty God,
whose only Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. AMEN

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 8.18 -9.1

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick.
Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land:
'Is the Lord not in Zion?
Is her King not in her?' (‘Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?’)
'The harvest is past, the summer is ended,
and we are not saved.’
For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt,
I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.
Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored?

O that my head were a spring of water,
and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

SECOND READING

1 Tim 2. 1-7

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings should be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God;
there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all —this was attested at the right time.

For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

GOSPEL

Luke 16. 1-13

Then Jesus said to the disciples, ‘There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, “What is this that I hear about you? Give me an account of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.” Then the manager said to himself, “What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.” So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, “How much do you owe my master?” He answered, “A hundred jugs of olive oil.” He said to him, “Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.” Then he asked another, “And how much do you owe?” He replied, “A hundred containers of wheat.” He said to him, “Take your bill and make it eighty.” And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

‘Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches?
And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.’

POST COMMUNION

Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
